The Runway Café is a 1940's themed-restaurant influenced by Tampa Bay's rich aviation history, overlooking the airport runway and Tampa Bay.

It offers a wide variety of breakfast items including homemade biscuits and gravy, and stuffed French toast. Lunchtime favorites include hearty homemade soups, fresh salads, sandwiches and a daily selection of entrees.

Specialty items will feature Joffrey's Coffee Company Cappuccino, Espresso, Café con Leche and frozen coffee drinks. In addition, the Café will serve homemade ice cream.

The Café offers 820 sq. ft. of inside seating for approximately 30 people as well as a 250 sq. ft. covered patio. Another added feature is the restaurant's art collection and antique furnishings from the 30's, 40's, and 50's that are for sale.
