Spirit Airlines Introduces Nonstop Service from Tampa to San Juan, Puerto Rico

Introductory fares starting at just $79 each way*

Fort Lauderdale, Fla. (February 22, 2007) - Spirit Airlines announces seasonal nonstop service from Tampa to San Juan starting May 4, 2007. Service will be offered four days weekly on Mondays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays until June 13, 2007 and will then operate five days per week, including Thursdays, until August 12, 2007.

Spirit serves all routes with its fleet of Airbus aircraft, the youngest in the Americas.

"We are thrilled to continue our Caribbean expansion," said Michael Pewther, Spirit's Senior Director of Sales. "Our new nonstop flight to San Juan will make it easier than ever for our customers in Tampa to experience the beauty and rich culture of Puerto Rico while giving Puerto Ricans more options for service to Florida."

"We are extremely pleased that Spirit's strategic plan of expanding its service into the Caribbean includes Tampa," commented Louis E. Miller, Executive Director Tampa International Airport. "With this new destination, Tampa Bay residents traveling for business or leisure will certainly want to take advantage of Spirit's new nonstop San Juan flight."
